Noidawallahs were star-struck on Thursday as Kartik Aaryan, Ananya Panday and Bhumi Pednekar arrived at a Noida mall to promote Pati Patni Aur Woh. The trio grooved to Dheeme Dheeme as they greeted cheering fans.

As soon as the actors started interacting with the audience, the venue echoed with people asking Kartik to smile. Bhumi teased a blushing Kartik, saying, "Kartik, the audience is asking you to smile! Smile, Kartik!" "Though there wasn't any announcement of the event, we got to know that the stars are coming through our society's WhatsApp group," said Capt Sidhanth Dhawan, who came to the mall with his family.

As the crowd cheered for him, Kartik told the audience how Noida holds a special place in his heart. "Pyaar Ka PUNCHANAMA (PKP) Noida mein shoot hui hai. Mere career ki shuruaat hi yahi se hui hai. Thank you for all the love, Noida," said Kartik.

When Kartik mentioned PKP, the audience requested him to deliver his famous monologue from the film, and he obliged. As he finished, Kartik left the stage and went into the crowd as Akhiyon Se Goli Maare played in the background.

Since the video of Kartik teaching Deepika Padukone the Dheeme Dheeme step went viral, the fans were eager to shake a leg with the actor on the song. Kartik obliged by dancing with some of his fans on the song.
