

Realtors' Forum

With 2021 witnessing a robust demand on the back of improved consumer sentiments, the Indian realty sector will head into 2022 with strong tailwinds. Industry majors speak...

MANOJ GAUR

CMD, Gaur Group & Vice President - North, CREDAI National

“The previously investor-driven realty sector is evolving towards an end-user market. In Delhi-NCR’s case, the market has shown signs of improvement which will sustain in the coming year. The trend of bigger and smart homes and increased demand for plots which started in 2021 will carry forward to 2022.”