

Top Quotes

Manoj Gaur, MD, Gaurs Group

The budget announcements made by Hon'ble FM seem to be a mixed bag from real estate perspective. While simplification of income tax regime with reduced rates and no exemptions, extension of measures announced for affordable housing by one more year are some of the positives for the sector. At the same time, the industry is bit disappointed that some of the demands such as according industry status to sector and one time restructuring of loans remain unfulfilled